*A late payment surcharge will be applied to membership renewals when the payment is made more than 30 days after 1st April. This is not applicable if current memberships are renewed within 30 days.

 Concession Membership is applicable to those who are over 65, on benefits, in receipt of a disability allowance or over 18 and in full time education. Please email proof to chair@addlestonecc.org.uk in confidence.

 Family Membership (includes up to 2 adults and 3 children). Once a child reaches 18, they can no longer be included in a Family Membership unless they remain in full time education.

* Associate Membership will be applied when a standalone Junior is joining the club where there is no full paying adult/guardian joining. The parent/guardian can use the clubroom, join social events; a vote at the AGM or the use of the equipment or gym is not included.

The Voluntary Donation Fee goes towards the costs of running & maintaining the club buildings & fleet. If you are happy to pay this donation please add it to your basket. If you would prefer to volunteer your time please select the different areas that you are willing to volunteer on your membership form e.g. assisting with paddling sessions on the water, land based assistance to paddling sessions, communications/administration, social events, cleaning, fundraising & maintenance.

Addlestone Canoe Club is a charity run completely by volunteers, in cases of hardship please speak to the Chairperson, Membership Secretary or Treasurer in the strictest confidence to discuss your individual circumstances or payments in instalments.

With your membership, you get access to hired club equipment, use of the changing facilities & clubroom, courses, organised trips, events, social activities, the use of the fitness area (after induction) & 10% off at the Whitewater Canoe Centre.
